Dear Mr. Spaulding:

This is in response to your correspondence to the Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR) in which you complained about a United States Attorney and an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts. In your correspondence, you also alleged corruption at public schools in Natick, Massachusetts and others, and requested assistance.

OPR has jurisdiction to investigate allegations of misconduct involving Department of Justice (DOJ) attorneys that relate to the exercise of their authority to investigate, litigate or provide legal advice, as well as allegations of misconduct by law enforcement personnel when they are related to allegations of attorney misconduct within the jurisdiction of OPR. It is, however, the policy of this Office to refrain from investigating issues or allegations that could have been or still may be addressed in the course of litigation, unless a court has made a specific finding of misconduct by a DOJ attorney or law enforcement agent. Based on our review of your correspondence, we have determined that your allegations fall into this category. This Office has no jurisdiction over public schools. Accordingly, we concluded that no action by this Office is warranted. You may wish to consult private counsel or contact the nearest Legal Aid Society to determine what additional legal avenues, if any, may be available to you.

We regret that we are unable to be of further assistance to you and consider this matter closed.

Sincerely,

Office of Professional Responsibility
